

Socratic Dialogue Discussion Cards

Directions: Cut out each card and fold in half on the dotted line.

Why do we have teams?

Brainstorm your thoughts and then turn the card over.

FRONT

BACK

Answer these additional questions from the content you brainstormed.

1. Why is this question important?
2. Could you put that another way?
3. Could you give us an example?
4. Could you expand upon that point further?
5. What caused you to feel that way?

What are the benefits of teams?

Brainstorm your thoughts and then turn the card over.

FRONT

BACK

Answer these additional questions from the content you brainstormed.

1. What caused you to feel that way?
2. Are there alternative viewpoints?
3. Have you always felt this way?
4. Has your opinion been influenced by something or someone?
5. Does this question lead to other important issues and questions?

What makes a team effective?

Brainstorm your thoughts and then turn the card over.

FRONT

BACK

Answer these additional questions from the content you brainstormed.

1. What would be an example?
2. Why do you think this is true?
3. What other information do we need?
4. Could you explain your reason to us?
6. Where did you get that idea?

What is the role of team members?

Brainstorm your thoughts and then turn the card over.

FRONT

BACK

Answer these additional questions from the content you brainstormed.

1. Does this question lead to other important issues and questions?
2. What would be an example?
3. How would other groups of people respond to this question? Why?
4. Why would someone make this assumption?
5. Could you explain your reason to us?

How do each of you contribute to a team's success?

Brainstorm your thoughts and then turn the card over.

FRONT

BACK

Answer these additional questions from the content you brainstormed.

1. Is this question easy or difficult to answer?
Why?
2. How would other groups of people respond to this question?
3. Could you explain your reason to us?
4. Has your opinion been influenced by something or someone?
5. Could you give us an example?

